Friday the 20th of June saw the largest gathering of Companions come together at Howard Hall, Braintree, for the Essex Scarlet Cord Annual Meeting. Companions arrived from all over the Country and abroad, in particular the Netherlands.

The meeting was fortunate to receive 12 Right Distinguished Companions, including our Provincial Grand Summus, as well as 9 Heads of Other Orders and other Deputies.

The Provincial Grand Summus, Right Distinguished Companion Terry Sheern, had the pleasure of re appointing Dist.Comp. David Atterbury as his Deputy and Dist.Comp. Trevor Armstrong as his Assistant.

The meeting was completed within an hour and all retired to a sparkling wine reception before lunch. Jenny and James the caterers did them proud once again supplying a lovely lunch. Even their Dutch Companions enjoyed their traditional lunch time tittle of flavoured MILK, it was clear they are not from Essex.

The overall feedback from those attending the meeting was very positive and hopefully more can be encouraged to attend next year.

Thanks to the Provincial Grand Senatus of Essex
